The Dangerous Truth about Today's Marijuana
with Laura Stack

Laura Stack was a 30-year Hall of Fame Speaker and bestselling author of personal productivity books, until Nov. 20, 2019, when her 19-year-old son, Johnny, died by suicide after becoming psychotic from dabbing high-THC marijuana concentrates. She responded by forming the nonprofit - Johnny's Ambassadors - to educate parents, teens and communities about the dangers of today's high-THC marijuana on adolescent brain development, mental illness and suicide. Laura now shares Johnny's story to help teens #StopDabbing.
